ORDER:

In the G.O, 1st read above, the disciplinary proceedings initiated against Smt. Baby Jnanamba, the then Tahsildar, Amalapuram and now Special Deputy Collector (Retd.), on the allegations of fabrication of Revenue records through web land enabling the borrower to get the bank loan without having any landed property, were concluded by imposing a penalty of withholding (25%) (twenty-five percent) monthly pension permanently against her.

2. Smt. Baby Jnanamba, the then Tahsildar, Amalapuram and now Special Deputy Collector (Retd.), has submitted a representation 2nd read above stating that she came from a socially disadvantaged community, her husband is un-employee, her son is working in private sector with meagre salary, her family depends on her pension only and there is no other source of income, she and her husband are suffering with various health problems, due to lack of sufficient pension, since her superannuation, she is experiencing much difficulty to maintain family and if monthly pension is withheld (25%) twenty-five percent permanently, it would be a great damage to her and may not be in a position to maintain her family with meagre pension and requested to re-consider and review the orders issued in G.O. 1st read above.

3. After examining the matter, Government has observed that the punishment of withholding of (25%) twenty-five percent pension permanently imposed vide G.O 1st read above appears to be excessive and hence decided to modify the same to withholding of (15%) fifteen percent monthly pension for five years, in view of her old age and for her family maintenance.

4. Accordingly, in exercise of the powers conferred under Rule 38(a) of Andhra Pradesh Civil Services (Classification, Control & Appeal) Rules, 1991, Government hereby decide to reconsider and review the orders issued vide G.O. 1st read above and accordingly, modify the penalty of withholding of twenty-five percent (25%) pension permanently to withholding of fifteen percent (15%) of monthly pension for a period of five years on Smt. Baby Jnanamba, the then Tahsildar, Amalapuram and now Special Deputy Collector (Retd.), in the afore said case.

5. The Chief Commissioner of Land Administration, Andhra Pradesh, Mangalagiri/ District Collector, East Godavari, shall take further necessary action in the matter accordingly.
